Dear Carol:

In accordance with President Atkinson's delegation to Chancellors of June 11, 1998, I am redelegating to you, in your position as The Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost, the authority for Execution of Purchase Contracts, Subcontracts, and Standard Purchase Orders for Materials, Goods and Services to be Supplied to the University as it pertains to the purchase of library collections in all formats, provided that the terms and conditions as stated in the letter are followed with respect to this special category of purchase.

Approval as to form must be obtained from the General Counsel for any purchase contract other than that made on the standard purchase order form or for any change in the standard terms and conditions.

This authority shall become effective immediately and supersedes any and all previous redelegations of this authority.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Berdahl
Chancellor
