EXECUTIVE VICE CHANCELLOR & PROVOST

Redelegation of Authority – BUSINESS AND FINANCE

The UC Regental Bylaw 31 and Business and Finance Bulletin, establish the Chancellor's responsibility for the conduct of all campus operations.

This authority of campus operations as the Acting Vice Chancellor of Finance shall be granted to the Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost who will be assigned the responsibility for general business and financial operations of the university, including accounting and payroll, accounts payables, budget & finance, banking, investments, internal controls, revenue management, and other general services as outlined in the series of UC Business and Finance activities included in UC Presidential Policy:

- A Series: Accounting
- BUS Series: Business Affairs
- G Series: General

This interim authority is granted to provide continuation of operations during the transition of the Vice Chancellor of Finance. Furthermore, this authority is effective immediately and remains enforced through September 30, 2023, unless otherwise directed in writing. This authority, where applicable, may not be redelegated and supersedes any prior delegation on the same topics and scope.

Sincerely,

Carol T. Christ
Chancellor
