EXECUTIVE VICE CHANCELLOR AND PROVOST

RE: Authority for Delegations issued to campus Vice Chancellors

I hereby delegate to your position as Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost the authority and responsibility for all delegations issued to the campus Vice Chancellors. You are granted the authority to delegate, rescind, update or make changes to these delegations consistent with the terms and conditions of the original delegation, applicable laws, regulations, University policies, and within the restrictions and limitations set forth in Standing Order 100.4(dd).

This authority is effectively immediately, and may not be further re-delegated.

Formal delegations of authority should include the following statements: the source of the authority; a description of the authority that is being delegated; any limitations imposed, including restrictions on re-delegation; and a reference to existing delegations that will be modified (amended or superseded) by the action.

If further re-delegation is not permitted or if the re-delegation carries limitations, the delegation or re-delegation should so state.

Any questions about this delegation can be directed to the campus Delegations of Authority Coordinator at 643-0233 or delegations@berkeley.edu.

Signed,

Carol T. Christ
