VICE CHANCELLOR – UNIVERSITY RELATIONS

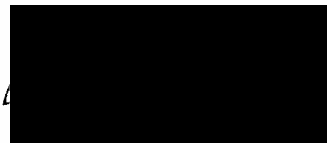

RE: Delegations of Authority 2579 – Authority to Return Gifts

The authority to return gifts granted to Chancellors on February 4, 2014 in DA 2579 is hereby re-delegated to you in your position of Vice Chancellor – University Relations. This supersedes the authority delegated to you in DA 0225.

This delegation of authority does not abrogate your obligation to consult with General Counsel as provided in Standing Order 100.4(v). In the case of a gift of real property that required approval from the President, Treasurer, and/or The Regents, the return of the gift is subject to the same approval requirements as applied when the gift was accepted.

This authority may not be re-delegated.

All best,

Nicholas B. Dirks

Delegation of Authority to Return Gifts

Section 100.4 of the Standing Orders of The Regents, Duties of the President, states that:

(v) The President is authorized, after consultation with the General Counsel, to return to the donor all or any unused portion of a gift of personal property, when the purposes of the gift have been fulfilled or fulfillment has become impossible or impracticable and when alternative uses are precluded.

The President's authority is hereby delegated to you for gifts for which you have delegated authority; however, this delegation of authority does not abrogate your obligation to consult with the General Counsel as provided in Standing Order 100.4(v). In the case of a gift of real property that required approval from the President, Treasurer, and/or The Regents, the return of the gift is subject to the same approval requirements as applied when you accepted the gift.

This supersedes Delegation of Authority 0225 dated June 5, 1969.

Re: Authority to Return Gifts

Section 101.1(u)* of the Standing Orders, as revised by The Regents on April 18, 1969, provides as follows:

"The President is authorized, after consultation with the General Counsel, to return to the donor all or any unused portion of a gift of personal property, when the purposes of the gift have been fulfilled or have become impossible or impracticable and when alternative uses are precluded."

This authority is hereby delegated to you for gifts over which you have administrative control. This memorandum supersedes the President's memorandum of April 25, 1967 to Chancellors, Vice Presidents and University Deans on this subject.
