RE: Delegation of Authority 2098 – To Approve Exceptional Housing Allowances Up to $100,000 under the Faculty Recruitment Allowance Program (formerly the Salary Differential Housing Allowance Program)

In accordance with the October 19, 2004 letter to Chancellors from the Provost and Senior Vice President Academic Affairs, I authorize you in your position as Dean to approve exceptional housing allowances up to $100,000 per recipient under the Faculty Recruitment Allowance Program. This authorization is effective September 16, 2013.

Exceptional housing allowances of more than $100,000 per recipient will require approval by the Office of the Provost and Senior Vice President – Academic Affairs. This authority may not be further redelegated.

All best,

Nicholas B. Dirks

CHANCELLORS

Dear Colleagues:

Re: Delegation of Authority—To Approve Exceptional Housing Allowances Up to $100,000 Under the Salary Differential Housing Allowance Program

The Salary Differential Housing Allowance Program in Academic Personnel Manual Section 190, Appendix E, Section F.3, states that exceptions to the maximum Housing Allowance, currently $53,300 per recipient, require approval by the Office of the Provost and Senior Vice President—Academic Affairs.

Effective immediately, you are authorized to approve exceptional housing allowances up to $100,000 per recipient under the Salary Differential Housing Allowance Program. This authority may be redelegated by you to specific designees but may not be further redelegated. Exceptional housing allowances of more than $100,000 or more per recipient will require approval by the Office of the Provost and Senior Vice President—Academic Affairs.

Sincerely,

M.R.C. Greenwood
Provost and Senior Vice President
Academic Affairs
